Fair Checks

DID YOU KNOW??

Are you curious about where your livestock sales checks come from?
When you should expect them and the process?? Read further for all your questions to be answered....

Waterford Fair

Livestock Checks from the Waterford Fair which includes the hog species are processed through the Waterford Fair board treasurer. The fair will process the livestock checks once buyers have paid invoices. The checks are mailed from the Waterford Fair board office. 2018 checks have already been mailed.

Washington County Fair

Livestock checks from the Washington County Fair are handled through the Washington County Market Livestock Committee. The committee waits until all buyers have paid invoices from the sale. Once the buyers have paid the committee volunteers work to get the checks processed and to exhibitors. The checks typically arrive in late October. Checks will be mailed on or after November 1.

Barlow Fair

Livestock checks from the Barlow Fair which include the Feeder calves, Market dairy goats, and market ducks are processed through the Barlow Independent Fair.
The fair will process the livestock checks once buyers have paid invoices and checks are mailed from the Barlow Fair office once all buyers have paid invoices. If you have not received your check in a reasonable time, you should contact a Barlow fair board member.
